

Share your ideas about future land use near the Georgetown and South Park neighborhoods.

The City of Seattle is studying options to update zoning for industrial areas of the city. The potential changes could shape the type of new buildings and activities that could take place in industrial areas over the next 20 years. The City’s Office of Planning and Community Development (OPCD) is hosting a series of meetings where you can ask questions and learn more about the possible changes.

	Date / Time	Event	Languages
MARCH	Tues 3/29 3 – 5:00 pm	Drop-In Hours / Talk with Staff South Park Library 8604 8th Ave S	English
	Tues 3/29 6 – 7:30 pm	In-Person Community Meeting South Park Community Center 8319 8th Ave S	English with interpretation in Spanish, Somali, Vietnamese
	Wed 3/30 6 – 7:30 pm	In-Person Community Meeting Georgetown Mini Mart Space 6525 Ellis Ave S	English with Spanish interpretation
	Thurs 3/31 3 – 5:00 pm	Drop-In Hours / Talk with Staff South Park Library 8604 8th Ave S	English
	Fri 4/1 6 – 8:00 pm	Talk with Staff at a Table South Park Senior Center Vietnamese Karaoke Night 8201 10th Ave S, Ste. 4	Vietnamese interpretation
APRIL	Sat 4/2 10 am - Noon	Drop-In Hours / Talk with Staff La Resistencia Coffee Shop 1249 S Cloverdale St	English with Spanish interpretation
	Tues 4/5 3 – 6:00 pm	Talk with Staff at a Table El Mercadito 1251 S Cloverdale St	Spanish interpretation
	Tues 4/5 6:30 – 8:00 pm	Drop-In Hours / Talk with Staff Jellyfish Brewing 917 S Nebraska St	English
	Wed 4/6 6 – 7:30 pm	Online Community Meeting Click to attend: https://bit.ly/opcd-ims-meeting	English
	Fri 4/8 10 am – Noon	Drop-In Hours / Talk with Staff Hanger Cafe 6261 13th Ave S	English

 Learn more: seattle.gov/opcd

 Contact Us: jim.holmes@seattle.gov

The City of Seattle encourages everyone to participate. For language services, disability accommodations or accessibility information, contact Jim Holmes | jim.holmes@seattle.gov.